

NEW YORKISM.

From Our Own Correspondent. NEW YORK, Jan. 29, 1870. Brooklyn Bazaar. If any lady desires to insure herself a desirable seat in Mr. Beecher's church, all she has to do is to make some purchases at one of the large fashionable stores on Fulton avenue in that city, and to turn the conversation in the direction of the Plymouth pulpit. She explains that she is a stranger in the city, that she has never heard Mrs. Stowe's brother, and that she is beset with an eagerness to sit, if but for one Sabbath, under the preaching of the man of God who evinced his regard for the sanctities of wedded life by marrying Mr. Richardson and Mrs. McFarland. The polite shop-keeper, with tongue as smooth as the silk he measures out, listens with an affected surprise. "Is it possible she never heard Beecher? How fortunate it is he has it in his power to oblige her! He has a pew in Beecher's church. Will she honor him by using it next Sunday?" The invitation is not lost. Next Sunday she repairs to Plymouth Church, inquires of one of the ushers for Mr. Counterjumper's pew, is shown into it, and hears the shoo-fly gospel preached, with true Beecherian bathos. Some of these Fulton avenue stores, I am told, sell their incomes considerably by this means. You may be sure that ultimately the pious Beecher is charged for in the bill; and the lady never forgets to return to the shopman who showed her the Plymouth pulpit a visit to salvation.

Shoo-fly Potatoes. Everything is not "can-can" in "shoo-fly" at present. Even potatoes betray this eulogical tendency. An announcement of "shoo-fly" potatoes started me out of countenance the other day from a bill of fare. Like Matilda Heron, who always made it a point to order from the bills of fare whatever she didn't understand the meaning of, it is my rule always to demand whatever is at once comestible and incomprehensible. In another moment "shoo-fly" potatoes were laid before me. The pomme de terre is cut up into endless strings, which you can never succeed in getting upon your plate unless you either cut them or empty the entire dish. The emotion they create within you impels you to exclaim "Shoo fly," and hence the name.

A Theatrical Beat. Mr. Michael Gallagher, whose profession is that of a bummer, has been calling upon all the theatrical managers in the city for the purpose of collecting charity on behalf of a supposititious Michael Abrahams. This Abrahams, according to Gallagher's account, was a theatrical man who had died and left a wife and children in poverty. The dodge in many cases was successful. Lester Wallace, out of the goodness of his heart, gave considerable, and other managers were not less kind. Upon applying to Tony Pastor, however, Mr. Gallagher met with a reception that he hardly anticipated. Tony, whose accessions of fame and flesh during the last few years have not engendered any physical languor, immediately recognized him as a fraud, and had him taken before the Jefferson Market Police Court. Justice Shandley detected in his lineaments those of a well-known swindler, and sent him to the Island for twelve months.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

THE CITY AMUSEMENTS. AT THE CHESTNUT there will be a matinee to-day, when a Marriage by Lanterns and The Two Blind Beggars will be performed. This evening will be given Cupid's Visit, Mr. Wallin's monologue entitled A Tooth, and the opera of Le Roi de Sicile. AT THE WALNUT NOT Guilty will be given for the last time at the matinee to-day. This evening will be produced, with new and appropriate scenery, painted expressly for the occasion in London, the new sensational drama of London, by Henry Leslie and John S. Clarke. AT THE ARCH Mr. John Brougham will appear this evening as "Jack Swick" in Romance and Reality. The drama of Dick Turpin will be given an afternoon. AT DUPREZ & BENDICT'S OPERA HOUSE a laughable series of Ethiopian barbaquies will be given this evening. AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE a first-rate programme of minstrelsy will be presented this evening. SIGNOR BLITZ and his son will give performances in magic at the Assembly Building this afternoon and evening. THE SINTZ-HASLER ORCHESTRA will give a matinee to-day at Musical Hall.

DR. BEECHER goes to Florida this morning. One of Dr. Beecher's particular duties is to keep his patients in the house all winter, to prevent taking colds. This is one great reason for his success. Those that are willing to stay in the house he sends to Florida with a full supply of his medicines. Since the Doctor has quit his professional visits to New York and Boston, consumptives, as said before, go South with a supply of his medicines. He has received so many letters from parties there urging him to visit them that he has concluded to do so. He leaves in the steamer Towards for Savannah this morning. So those desiring to consult him will please bear in mind that he will not be at his Principal Office, No. 15 N. Sixth street, before the first of March.

FIRE AND BURGLAR PROOF SAFE HERRING'S CHAMPION SAFES. The Burning of the Chamber of Commerce Building. PHILADELPHIA, December 12, 1869. MESSRS. FARRER, HERRING & Co., No. 629 Chestnut street. Gentlemen:—The two Herring's Patent Champion Safes purchased of you by the Commercial Exchange and Chamber of Commerce about eight months ago were in the conflagration of the Chamber of Commerce Building on the 7th inst. Upon opening them we found the books and papers in a perfect state of preservation. We can, therefore, readily testify to the fire proof qualities of the Herring Patent Safes. J. H. MICHENER, President Commercial Exchange, SAMUEL A. WARD, Treasurer Chamber of Commerce.

FARRER, HERRING & Co. You are respectfully informed that the Safe purchased of you several years back was in Room No. 12, Commercial Exchange, at the time of the fire on the 7th instant. It was opened without difficulty on the following day, and the money, checks, and papers found to be dry and perfect. The books were also in an good state of preservation as before the occurrence of the fire, except one or two being slightly dampened by steam, but in these the writing and figures were not at all defaced, and the safe has given entire satisfaction. ELIHU ROBERTS, Secretary of the Atlantic Petroleum Storage Co.

MESSRS. FARRER, HERRING & Co. The Safe which we purchased from you last spring was in the late fire in the Chamber of Commerce Building, and although it was submitted to the severest test of any in the building, we take pleasure in informing you that it was opened the next day with ease, and papers, books, etc., that it contained were found to be in perfect condition. Respectfully, WARDEN, FREW & Co., Office, No. 111 Walnut street.

HELMHOLD'S PREPARATIONS. H. T. HELMHOLD'S Concentrated Fluid Extract Buchu. THE GREAT DIURETIC. The proprietor trusts that his remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as patent medicines. Helmholt's Fluid Extract Buchu is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is indorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood purifying and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron. See medical properties contained in Dispensary of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of musk. It is given chiefly in a complaint of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder and urethra, diseases of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.
